

STATEMENT OF FACTS
DEBRA J. MAIMONE—REDACTED

Your affiant, Mark Brundage is a Special Agent assigned to the Washington Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and has been employed by the FBI since 2016. Currently, I am assigned to a squad that investigates Counterterrorism matters within the FBI's Washington Field Office. As part of that assignment, I have been tasked with investigating criminal activity in and around the Capitol grounds on January 6, 2021. As a Special Agent, I am authorized by law or by a Government agency to engage in or supervise the prevention, detention, investigation, or prosecution of a violation of Federal criminal laws.

The U.S. Capitol is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was also closed to members of the public.

On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the U.S. Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the U.S. Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 PM. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 PM, the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Mike Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly around 2:00 PM, individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of the U.S. Capitol Police, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts.

Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 PM, members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Mike Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, the joint session of the United States Congress was effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 PM. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the sessions resumed.

During national news coverage of the aforementioned events, video footage which appeared to be captured on mobile devices of persons present on the scene depicted evidence of violations of local and federal law, including scores of individuals inside the U.S. Capitol building without authority to be there.

On January 6, 2021, at approximately 2:30 PM (EST), a Parler social media account registered to Debra J. MAIMONE—posted a video. In that video, the videographer—a separately charged individual later identified as Philip C. VOGEL, II (AKA Flip)—panned the camera around the Capitol crypt, showing MAIMONE and other individuals. As the camera arrived on MAIMONE's face, she removed her distinctive American flag mask and stated, in sum and substance: IT'S AMAZING. The unseen VOGEL admonished MAIMONE, stating in sum and substance: PUT YOUR MASK ON. I DON'T WANT THEM TO SEE YOU. Below are two screenshots of MAIMONE in the Capitol crypt from MAIMONE's Parler video.

Below are two screenshots from U.S. Capitol CCTV footage showing VOGEL and MAIMONE together interacting and walking together inside of the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021.

At approximately 2:38 PM, CCTV video shows VOGEL and MAIMONE near a group of individuals who are pushing through law enforcement and forcing open a door. A screenshot from CCTV is shown below.

At approximately 2:43 PM, CCTV video shows MAIMONE putting personal protective equipment, namely a gas mask, into VOGEL's backpack. MAIMONE subsequently helps a separate protester put a gas mask in his backpack and then gives him a thumbs up. Three screenshots from that segment of CCTV video are shown below.

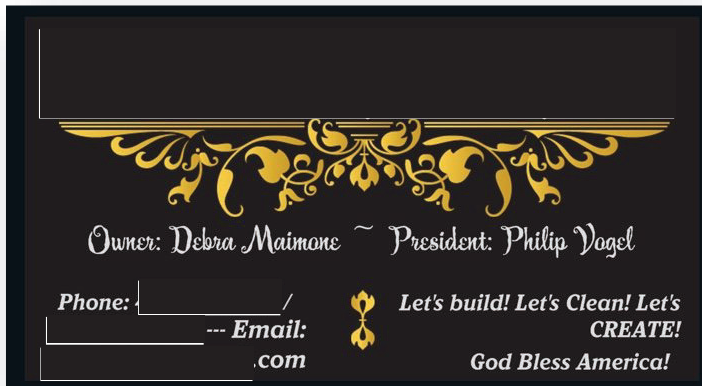

At approximately 2:47 PM, CCTV video shows VOGEL and MAIMONE picking up a bag clearly marked POLICE, rummaging through it, and taking silver packages from the POLICE bag. CCTV video also shows MAIMONE and VOGEL carrying silver packages. According to U.S. Capitol Police, the silver packages contain escape hoods, which are a form of personal protective equipment (PPE) designed to protect the wearer from chemical agents, biological agents, nuclear or radiological particles and toxic industrial chemicals for a short period of time. The silver packages depicted in the CCTV footage were procured by the US Senate Sergeant-at-Arms for emergency use by people authorized to be in the Capitol for work or permitted visit. Neither MAIMONE nor VOGEL had permission to take possession of the escape hoods from the POLICE bag. Three screenshots from that segment of CCTV video are shown below.

MAIMONE and VOGEL are known associates outside of the Capitol riots. They are listed as Owner (MAIMONE) and President (VOGEL) of the business known as [REDACTED]. The top two images below are taken from the MAIMONE and VOGEL's business' yelp.com page, and the bottom image is taken from their business website's CONTACT US page— [REDACTED].
